PARENT/TEACHER INFORMATION AFTERNOON 13 February 2018

Dear Parents

On Tuesday afternoon, 13 February, Dalmain Primary School will be holding Parent/Teacher Information Sessions between 4:40pm and 7:35pm. Teachers will be sharing a range of information with parents on their expectations for the upcoming school year. This will include the topics of behaviour, homework, class routines and particular class requirements and requests. It is hoped that this will give parents further insight into how classrooms will function this year. In addition, this year the specialist teachers (Art/LOTE/Music & Physical Education) will also be available for parents to meet with in the library (5:20 – 5:50pm).

The Information sessions will be run according to the schedule below. It is hoped by staggering the sessions across a 3 hour timeframe that parents will be able to attend more than one class session if they so need. While the sessions are structured this way to increase the opportunities for parents having more than one child at the school it is not possible to accommodate all variations. Each class session will run for a maximum of 30 minutes. Please note that this time is not for individual parent meetings but rather a general introduction opportunity for everyone. Individual parent interviews may be arranged directly with your child's class teacher at another time convenient to both parties if required. All scheduled meetings will be held in classrooms.

It is hoped that these information sessions will prove to be very useful for parents and staff and I look forward to meeting with parents at this time.
